

Brady Public Schools
Permission to Publish

From time to time your son/daughter may have occasion to be photographed for the newspaper, television, or the school's Internet web site. Frequently, news media will do stories on events occurring in school programs, presentations, sporting events, or other newsworthy happenings. The school may post pictures of classroom activities and field trips on the Internet.

As part of your child's educational opportunity, he/she may have the opportunity to publish documents and projects in the news media or on the school's web pages. Since pictures and individual work are personally identifiable information, you may have concerns about this type of information appearing in the news media or on the Internet.

The Brady Public School system is respectful of your child's privacy. In accordance with the Child's Internet Protection Act and the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, it is our policy not to divulge any personally identifiable information in conjunction with student documents, projects, and/or individual photographs. Personally identifiable information includes students' full names, residential addresses, e-mail addresses, phone numbers, and/or students' ages and gender.

Please read the following information and mark the appropriate box.

No, Brady Public School may not allow my student's picture or works be made available to the media or displayed on the Internet. This includes but limited to publishing my son/daughter's student work and class or group photographs on the school web site.
